The screenshot shows the CareerForceMN.com website. At the top, there is a navigation bar with links: "Creating an Equitable Workplace", "Find a CareerForce Location", "Newsroom", "For Staff & Partners" (highlighted with a red arrow), "LANGUAGE", "Log out", and "My account". Below this is the CareerForce logo and the tagline "Minnesota's Career Resource". To the right, there are links for "For Career Seekers", "For Employers", and "Online Tools", along with a search bar labeled "Search CareerForce". A green notification bar states: "✓ Staff & Partner Only For Staff & Partners has been updated." Below this is a large blue banner with the text "For Staff & Partners" and a background image of diverse people. Underneath the banner is a breadcrumb trail: "Home > For Staff & Partners" and a row of tabs: "View", "Content", "Locations", "Edit", "Announcements", "Members", "Connections", "Networks", and "Delete". The main content area is titled "For Staff & Partners" and contains the following text: "Only CareerForce staff and partners have access to this section of CareerForceMN.com. This is where you can find training resources helpful to you in your work, a variety of useful CareerForce templates, links to order business cards and other materials, plus other content that is not public facing." Below this is a paragraph: "Do you receive our CareerForce Staff & Partners email that comes out every Thursday? If not, make sure you sign up. Click to subscribe" (with a red arrow pointing to the link). The final sentence reads: "You can browse content on the site, which is organized into the following categories:" followed by a list of categories: "CareerForce Library", "COVID-19 resources", "Brand Guidance and Messaging", "Templates for Flyers, Handouts, PPTs, etc.", "Logo Files", "Virtual backgrounds, posters, Monitor Graphics and Other Public-Facing Decorative Materials for virtual meetings or CareerForce Locations", and "Flyers, brochures, handouts and other resources to Share with Customers and Partners".
